

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION RE: NEW PROTHONOTARY FOR NOVA SCOTIA SUPREME COURT IN PICTOU

Tuesday, July 23, 2019

Members of the Nova Scotia Bar are advised that there is a new Prothonotary for the Nova Scotia Supreme Court in Pictou, effective July 15.

Charlene Jamieson has a Paralegal Diploma and worked as a paralegal in the private sector for 15 years before joining Court Services with the Nova Scotia Department of Justice in 2011. She began her career with the Department of Justice at the Antigonish Justice Centre, working in Court Administration. From 2016 to present, she served in various roles as a Registrar of Probate and Prothonotary at the Kentville and Antigonish Justice Centres. She has also liaised with the Department of Justice on the Probate E-filing Committee and E-Filing Sub-Committee.

Ms. Jamieson began her new role on July 15. She can be reached by phone at 902-485-7176 or by email at Charlene.Jamieson@courts.ns.ca.