

NOTICE TO THE PROFESSION:
STAFF CHANGES AT THE LAW COURTS IN HALIFAX

Monday, Jan. 11, 2021

Members of the Nova Scotia Bar are advised that there is a new Prothonotary filling in at the Law Courts in Halifax while the Nova Scotia Department of Justice conducts a competition to fill a one-year job posting in the Prothonotary's Office.

Prothonotary Timothy Morse has taken a leave of absence, returning to the role in January 2022. The competition to fill his position is now underway.

In the meantime, Jessica Boutilier will be fulfilling the duties of Prothonotary for the Supreme Court in Halifax. Ms. Boutilier has been working in Court Administration since January 2016, most recently as the civil scheduler in Halifax. Ms. Boutilier can be reached at 902-424-7968 or by email at Jessica.Boutilier@courts.ns.ca.

While Ms. Boutilier is filling in for the Prothonotary, Sarah Drysdale will be responsible for civil scheduling. The phone number for the Civil Scheduling Office remains the same (902-424-5782). Ms. Drysdale can be reached by email at Sarah.Drysdale@novascotia.ca.
