

MEDIA ADVISORY: First World War Law Students Posthumously Called to the Bar

Thursday, Nov. 7, 2019 (Halifax, NS) – Members of the media are invited to attend a posthumous Call to the Bar ceremony for law students who were killed or gave up their prospective legal careers during the First World War.

When: 3:00 p.m., Friday, Nov. 8, 2019

Where: Courtroom 301, The Law Courts, 1815 Upper Water St., Halifax

The Nova Scotia Judiciary and the Nova Scotia Barristers' Society (NSBS) are pleased to recognize the extraordinary contributions of these law students. The Hon. Deborah K. Smith, Chief Justice of the Nova Scotia Supreme Court, will preside over the special Call to the Bar ceremony.

Attendees are asked to arrive by 2:45 p.m. As per the Guidelines for Media & Public Access to the Courts, video cameras and still photography will be permitted inside the courtroom during the ceremony; however, depending on space, media may be restricted to one area and not permitted to move around the room.
