

SELF-REPRESENTED APPELLANTS
CIVIL APPEALS BEFORE THE NOVA SCOTIA COURT OF APPEAL

1. Read the attached Notice of Appeal (General) Form 90.06 carefully and retype the Notice of Appeal with your own information.
2. Civil Procedure Rule 90 applies to all civil appeals before the Nova Scotia Court of Appeal – review the rule on the Courts' website at www.courts.ns.ca.
3. You must file an original and two (2) copies of your Notice of Appeal with the Registrar of the Court. These three (3) copies are kept by the court. You must submit enough additional copies so there is one for each Respondent, one to attach to each affidavit of service and one for yourself. A copy of the decision and order you are appealing must be filed with the Notice of Appeal, if the decision or order is in writing – see Civil Procedure Rule 90.11(2). By way of example, if there are two (2) Respondents on the appeal you are commencing, you file eight (8) copies with the court. The court will keep three (3) copies and five (5) Registrar certified copies will be returned to you, one for each Respondent, one for each affidavit of service and one for you.
4. A person may appeal from a decision for which no order is issued, but the order must be filed with the court before the appeal is set down for hearing – Civil Procedure Rule 90.15.
5. The court filing fee is $218.05 plus the law stamp fee of $25.00 + HST.
6. A Notice of Appeal must be filed with the Registrar of the Nova Scotia Court of Appeal within twenty-five (25) days of the date of the decision or order you wish to appeal. Remember that time is calculated in accordance with Civil Procedure Rule 94. This means that you do not count the date the decision you wish to appeal was made, you do not count any Saturday or Sunday or holiday on which the Prothonotary's office is closed, and you exclude the 25th day. By way of example: if the decision you wish to appeal was rendered on January 12, 2009, the Notice of Appeal must be filed no later than February 17, 2009.
7. If the appeal is from a decision made under the Divorce Act the appeal period is thirty (30) days within the meaning of that Act.
8. As the Appellant, you must serve one copy of the Notice of Appeal on each Respondent before the deadline set out at item 6 above has expired. This means that the Notice of Appeal must be served on each Respondent within the twenty-five (25) day period. You must provide proof of service of the Notice of Appeal on the Respondents to the Registrar by filing an Affidavit of Service on Form 31.05.

9. As the Appellant, you must also send a copy of the Notice of Appeal to the judge from whose judgment the appeal is brought – Civil Procedure Rule 90.16 (5).
10. Your Notice of Appeal must set out grounds of appeal that are clear and concise. Grounds of appeal are limited to error or law or judicial error.
11. Once your Notice of Appeal has been filed you will receive a letter from the Registrar setting out the next steps you must follow to have the appeal set down for hearing.
12. As set out in the Registrar's letter, you must file a Certificate of Readiness Form 90.26 with the Court of Appeal before your motion to set the appeal down for hearing is heard. One of your major obligations, as required in the Certificate of Readiness, is to obtain an official transcript, prepared by a certified court reporter, at your expense, of the proceedings at the lower court which is the subject of your appeal.
13. The Notice of Motion for Directions must be filed not later than eighty (80) days after the date the Notice of Appeal is filed with the court.
